

VISIT...

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

HELPING VERBS

A verb sometimes needs help to show past tense.

- has and have are called helping verbs
- Use has with a singular noun in the subject and with he, she, or it.

Father has talked to my teacher.

She has finished her lunch.

It has happened over and over again.

- Use have with a plural noun and with I, you, we, or they.

The birds have arrived at the mission.

They have launched the rocket.

People have studied the moon and stars.